

ISRA World Meeting Schedule for Saturday, July 29

8:00 AM

Plenary Speaker: Dean Pruitt
Title of Plenary Address: Intergroup Escalation and Its Remedies

BREAK
9:15 Paper Session SA-1 Chair: H. Patisaul	Symposium SA-2 Chair: J. Archer Do size and strength matter? An application of the principle of Resource Holding Power to human aggression	Symposium SA-3 Chair: K. Parks Measurement issues in accurate assessment of sexual assault victimization and perpetration
K.A. Feste How Aggressive Parties Negotiate: U.S. Intervention, Terrorist Resistance, and Conflict Resolution	A.D. Pellegrini Dominance in preschool classrooms: Change across a school year	M.M. Sisco & M. P. Koss Unwanted sexual experiences: A preliminary report of the psychometric properties of the revised, expanded, and gender-neutral Sexual Experiences Survey for assessing perpetration
9:40 Symposium SA-1 Chair: H. Patisaul Dietary Influences on Anxiety and Aggression	A. Sell Strength and anger: Individual differences in anger, aggression and political attitudes conform to a Paleolithic logic of aggression	A. Abbey, A. Jacques & M. Parkhill The Effects of Question Phrasing and Number of Questions on Estimates of Sexual Assault Prevalence
J.R. Kaplan, M. R. Adams, & N. G. Simon High Isoflavone Soy Protein is Associated with Increased Aggression and Reduced Affiliation among Adult Male but not Female Cynomolgus Monkeys (Macaca fascicularis) initially Naïve to a Soy-Containing Diet.
10:05 N.G. Simon, Q. Mo., S. Hu, C. Garippa, A. Geletzke, C. Trydestam, & S. Lu Dehydroepiandrosterone: Cellular mechanisms modulating aggression	A. Sell The function of anger expressions: What's with all the yelling, and why does his face look like that?	J. White Increasing self-reported alcohol/drug-assisted sexual assault
BREAK
10:40 S. N. Young Serotonin and human behavior along the agonistic-affiliative axis	J. Archer Physical aggression as a function of perceived fighting ability: An experimental investigation involving students and prisoners	M. Parkhill, A. Abbey & A. Jacques The Relationship Between the Sexual Assault Item Endorsed and Detailed Descriptions of What Occurred: How Closely Do They Correspond in a Community Sample?
11:05 T. Blasbalg Omega-3 fatty acid deficiencies in aggression and violence.	Discussant: N. Graham-Kevan	K. Parks & A. Pardi Do women know when they have experienced sexual aggression? Findings from daily reports
11:30 1:00 PM Paper Session SP-1 Chair TBA Aggression and its consequences in male-female relationships	Symposium SP-1 Chair: B. Bushman New Developments in Media Violence Research	Paper Session SP-2 Chair TBA Affect, activation and aggression
L. Owens, R. Shute & P. Slee "What the mates think is really important." Why teenage boys are aggressive to girls.	B. Bushman Violence in video games desensitizes players to violence in the real world	A.S. Henner, A. Didry, & P. Salhani Feeling of procedural injustice as a determinant of aggressive behaviour
1:25 N. Graham-Kevan Investigating Johnson's Domestic Violence typology	B. O. De Castro & H. Polman How can violent game playing cause aggressive behavior? Moderators and mediators of violent video-game playing effects on reactive and proactive aggressive behavior towards peers	W. A. Warburton, D. J. F. McIlwain, D. R. Cairns & A. J. Taylor Restoring perceived control with aggression: Why, how, and who?

1:50	J. J. Winters, J. N. Kearns-Bodkin, G. G. Homish, A. J. Kubiak, & K. E. Leonard Common Couples Violence versus Gender-Specific Violence: Understanding Dyadic Patterns of Intimate Partner Violence in Early Marriage	L. R. Huesmann Long-term cognitive desensitization effects and short-term cognitive priming effects of exposure to media violence: evidence from three countries	M. de Wied, A. van Boxtel, R. Zaalberg, P.P. Goudena, & I.W. Matthys Facial EMG responses to happy and angry expressions in boys with disruptive behavior disorders and normal controls.
BREAK
2:25	M. Martinez, M.I. Garcia-Linares, S. Sanchez-Lorente and C. Blasco-Ros Impact of intimate male partner violence on women's physical and mental health and the endocrine and immune systems	S.J. Kirsh Violent video games and the processing of dynamic facial expressions.	G. Fairchild, S. van Goozen, S. Kine, & I. Goodyer Affective modulation of the startle reflex in teenagers with early- or adolescent-onset conduct disorder and controls
2:50		L. Kirwil Relationship between psycho-physiological responses to screen violence and reactive/proactive aggression in adults	S.C. Haden & A. Scarpa The Interactive Roles of Parental Rejection and Noradrenergic Activation on Aggression in At-Risk Youth
3:15		I. Möller & B. Krahe Exposure to violent video games and aggressive affect, cognition, and behavioral intentions	